

92% of emergency calls end up being false alarms*!

The police waste countless hours responding to these false alarms and they never know what they will find when they arrive.

With Security Innovations' Monitored Video Surveillance, the police only respond to verified alarms and they know exactly why they are responding.

Which way do you think gets the faster response from the police?

* Source: The Hoppe Team.